Compiling of this list would not be possible without the help of the MRT, LRT and various members of the Philippine Railways Railfan Group. We thank all for their continued help in researching the current status and history of the various Philippine railways.

CREDITS:

Thank you to all the management and staff of both the LRT and MRT operations without who's generosity in sharing their systems would have resulted in so much being still unknown.
Thank you to Brian Young, Brian South and the 'Philippine Railways Advocacy Group' for their contributions to this issue.
Special thanks to Paul Nicholas Domingo Cabalhin for his listing of corrections to my first version of this status update.

* Services are usually suspended during Holy Week.

Operational:

1G 1000-1036, 1038-1064	Built by BN ACEC
2G 1100-1128	Built by Hyundai Precision and Adtranz
3G 1200-1248	Built by Kinki Sharyo and Nippon Sharyo

Non-Operational For Repair

1G 1002, 1006, 1007, 1013, 1027, 1037 (Rizal Day Bombing Damage), 1054
2G Numerous out of use for repairs. (See separate LRT publication for latest details).
3G 1236, 1248

Ordered: 7 sets planned after line refurbishment.

System Update:

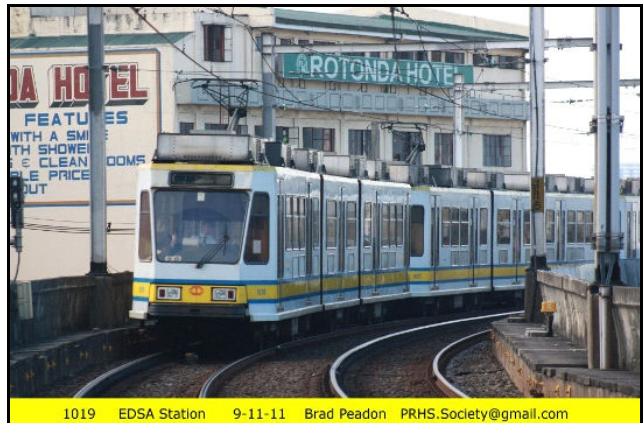

Northward extension has been completed from Balintawak to North Ave to connect with MRT.
However a station has yet to be built at North Ave at time of 2011 opening to Balintawak.

President Aquino announced during March 2012 that he wished the Cavite extension south be completed by 2015.
Work yet to commence.

Plans for a 6.2km branchline from Baclaran station to Ninoy Aquino International Airport is currently undergoing a feasibility study (2011).

The elusive (for me) 2G sets. 6-11-11 Brad Peadon PRHS.Society@gmail.com
